

Security Benefit Adds Another A- Financial Strength Rating

Topeka, KS – September 19, 2019 – Security Benefit, a leader in the U.S. retirement market, today announced that Fitch Ratings has published an Insurer Financial Strength (IFS) rating of A- (Strong) for the firm’s insurance entity, Security Benefit Life Insurance Company (SBLIC).* The outlook of the rating is stable. SBLIC is a subsidiary of Eldridge Industries (Eldridge).

“We are proud of this acknowledgment of our financial strength by a respected rating agency like Fitch,” said Mike Kiley, Chief Executive Officer of Security Benefit. “This marks our third A- rating and we believe affirms our status as a retirement company consumers can count on.”

Broad strength. SBLIC also has A- ratings from A.M. Best and Standard and Poor’s. The Fitch rating reflects Security Benefit’s moderate business profile, “Strong” capitalization and leverage, and strong operating results. The company remains on a solid growth track, with earnings and assets up again in 2018 and employment across the enterprise topping 1,500 associates worldwide.

Fitch Ratings’ evaluates key credit factors including financial ratios, quantitative elements, and performance relative to peers. Rating committees also weigh several criteria including overall business profile, capitalization and leverage, and financial performance and earnings when evaluating the final rating.

“The impact our business model has delivered over the past decade is proved out by all these ratings,” noted Kiley. “Fitch’s view was driven by our efficient operations and diversified distribution strategy, including the 403(b) space. And while our innovative approach has been critical, we don’t just measure ourselves by the amount of product sold or the growth in assets—but also by the trust we have earned from our customers around the country.”
