

What information can a delegate access?

Financial Professionals

Delegates access to information will be the same as a financial professional, including:

- Access to sales materials, applications, and business forms to process business and account changes
- View and update client information online
- Search, view, and download client correspondence sent from Security Benefit
- Review business processing status for new annuity applications and contracts